

Law Enforcement & Security Consulting, Inc.

Developing Mutual Trust in Your Organization... Building a Thriving Culture

Train To Make a Difference!

Course Description:

This program focuses on teaching those in the Law Enforcement and Security fields that lead others, how to inspire an atmosphere of cohesion and mutual trust in your organization. The proper method techniques and strategies of effective leadership must be woven into your fabric before anyone will follow and take initiative. Developing the leadership skills that builds trust and a thriving culture is critical to getting results.

Course covers the following:

- Understand the need to adapt your organization to a constantly changing environment
 - Through observations
 - Good leadership strategy
 - Management
 - Employees
 - Those you serve
- What creates distrust in an organization?
 - How to avoid it?
- What is Mutual Trust?
- What is Cohesion?
- Causes of "Friction"
- Warning Signs of "Low Morale"
- Fundamentals of a High Morale Environment
- The Boyd Cycle role in your organization
 - Mutual Trust vs. Distrust
- Create & Nurture a Thriving organizational culture
- How to develop Trust, Cohesion & Team Spirit
- How to Celebrate Achievements

Please visit us at www.lesc.net

Photo credit hisphoto

This is a one day program conducted by Fred Leland, Director of LEsc, Inc.

Law Enforcement & Security Consulting, Inc.

473 High St,
N. Attleboro, MA. 02760
508-298-2023
fred@lesc.net