Fred Leland, Director and Principal Trainer for LESC, Inc. will be conducting monthly workshops titled: “The Professional Behind the Shield.”

Fred Leland is a Lieutenant with the Walpole Police Department who knows first hand how difficult it is to take officers off the road in order to attend valuable training, leaving Commanding Officers scrambling to make sure all shifts are covered.

With this in, Lt. Leland is offering on a monthly basis “The Professional Behind the Shield” workshop series. The series includes his most sought after programs;

- The Boyd Cycle: Threat Assessment & Management for the Protection Professional
- Strategy & Tactics for Handling Dynamic Encounters
- Developing Mutual Trust in your Organization & Building a Thriving Culture

The main objective of “The Professional Behind the Shield” series is to provide Law Enforcement personnel and professionals in the field of Security with the necessary tools needed to deal with conflict and the strategies, tactics, as well as decision making capabilities that are essential in detecting, avoiding, defusing and resolving conflicts. This program will help you to develop high levels of situational awareness by recognizing the non-verbal language patterns, signs and signals of impending danger.
